JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

GEORGE PEABODY,

Boston, Jan. 18, 1870.

It is currently reported that Governor Chamberlain, of Maine, will pronounce the funeral oration at Portland on the second day after the arrival of the Peabody funeral fleet. The fleet will be due on the 28th inst. The United States double-turreted Monitors Terror and Miantonomoh will sail from here to-day to join the funeral fleet and escort it into Portland. Admiral Farragut will not join the monitors here, but will proceed to Portland by rail, and take charge of the imposing naval ceremonies attendant upon the disembarkation and transfer of the remains.

The body of the great philanthropist will be received by the Governor, the Legislature, the military authorities, a committee from the Board of Trustees of the Peabody Institute, a committee from the Board of Trustees of the Peabody Educational Fund a committee of the Boston city government, the Massachusetts Legislature and committees from other New England Legislatures and city governments. The escort on the funeral train from Portland to Peabody, consisting of representatives from almost every department of the public service, together with invited guests, will fill some forty cars. It is intended that the ceremonies shall eclipse anything of the kind heretofore known. Robert C. Winthrop will deliver the funeral address at Peabody.

The Massachusetts Senate to day passed resolutions of respect to the memory of George Peabody, autorizing the appointment of a committee to attend his funeral, and as a further testimonial, the Senate adjourned.

The lower house of the Maine Legislature, by a vote of seventy-eight to thirty-nine, to day tabled the resolution to attend, in a body, the funeral ceremonies of George Peabody, at Portland, and accepted the committee's report that it was inexpedient to attend.

CAN WOMEN KEEP A SECRET?—Her own certainly. We make the answer without disparagement to her general prudent reticence, as our fair readers will know when we are ready to endorse the following from the N. Y. Century—a Charleston periodical, by the way, that should be on the parlor table of every Southern household:

Men say women can't keep a secret. It is just the reverse—women can, men can't.—Women carry with them to their graves secrets that would kill any man. women never tells; man always does. Woman suffers and dies; man blabs and lives. Man cannot keep a secret, woman cannot make it known. What is sport to man is death to woman. Adam was a sneak. Eve would have kept the apple a secret. Be ye faithful. Who ever heard a woman talk about her love fiascos? Every body has heard a man gossip. Man delights in telling of his illicit conquests: woman would cut her tongue out first. Men are coarse in their clubroom talk; women refined in their parlor conversation. Who ever heard of a woman telling of her lovers? Who has not listened to the dissipation of the men? Men boast; women don't. Women never tell tales out of school; men are always blabbing. So down with another old adage. Woman can keep a secret, and her ability to do so is proved by the conduct of a St. John's (New foundland) girl, who did not tell her lover she was woth four million in her own right until after the marriage.

THE FORCE OF IMAGINATION.—Buckland the distinguished geologist, one day gave a dinner, after dissecting a Mississippi alligator, having asked a good many of the most distinguished of his classes to dine with him. His house and all his establishment were in good style and taste. His guests congregated. The dinner table looked splendid with glass, china and plate, and the meal commenced with excellent soup. "How do you like the soup?" asked the doctor, after having finished his own plate, addressing a famous gourmand of the day. "Very good, indeed," answered the other; "turtle, is it not?" I only ask because I do not find any green fat." The doctor shook his head. "I think it has somewhat of a musky taste," says another; "not unpleasant, but peculiar." "All alligators have, replied Buckland; "the caymen peculiarly so The fellow I dissected this morning and which you have just been eating—" There was a general rout of guests; everyone turned pale; half a dozen started up from the table; two or three ran out of the room, and only those who had stout stomachs remained to the close of an excellent entertainment. "See what imagination is," said Buckland; if I had told them it was turtle, or terrapin, or bird's nest soup, salt water amphibia, or fresh, or the glutten of a fish from the maw of a sea bird, they would have pronounced it excellent, and their digestion would have been none the worse. Such is prejudice." But was it really an alligator?" asked a lady. "As good a calf's head as ever wore a coronet," answered Buckland.

NO MOTHER.—"She has no mother." What a volume of sorrowful truth is comprised in that single utterance, no mother! We must go down the hard rough path of life and become inured to care and sorrow, in their sterner forms before we can take home to our own experience the dread reality:—no mother, without a struggle and a tear. But when it is said of a frail young girl, just passing from childhood toward the life of a woman, how sad is the story summed up in that short sentence! Who shall now check the wayward fancies—who shall bow her with the errors and failings of the motherless daughter? Let not the cup of sorrow be overflowed by the harshness of your bearing, or your sympathiz ng coolness. Is she heedless of your doings? Is she forgetful of her duty? Is she careless of her movements? Remember, oh, remember, she has no mother. And the poor boy too, with none to care for him or to administer to his comfort. You see him sportive with his companions, perhaps rude, may be at times wicked—he has no mother to warn and chide him—no mother to shed her softe ing influence over him. And when he goes to bed, strange fears creep over him, and a desolation of spirit that no tongue can express. He is turned out into the world to battle its storm alone, and when pain and weariness press upon him, no word of pitying sympathy fall on his ears—no soft hand soothes and supports him. Remember, oh, remember, he has no mother!—Lynchburg News.

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of study and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experimenters of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned profitably without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed; in short, this invention brings the luxurious and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light of the ordinary chimney-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will find ready sale in every county so that any family that uses this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps Thousands of them will be used in cities, as this light is one-half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation during the day and evening at the Yarbrough House.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle Saw Mills in workman-like manner for those desiring them.

There are now 440 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position, gives the backward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and set the log at both ends at the same time. This is a saving of one hand in the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles South of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

P. J. WRAY.

I will be at Lynn Adams' Store on the 2nd & the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr. P. J. Wray, Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular Saw Mill, built by you. I can cut a line 14 inches deep, 30 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel We have to-day cut 5,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.
Dec 23rd 1869. AL. HOOKE FARTIS.

Mr. P. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double action Mill, that you set to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with the old Mill of 48 inch saw and same water wheel.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

Some of our friends have sometimes said that we are too rough in our handling the swindlers and oppressors now in power in this State, and intimate, occasionally, milder treatment would be more effective. To those who look upon the subject as a mere matter of taste, we concede the right and propriety of using whatever terms they please to express their views in regard to men and measures, but as we look at it as a matter of principle, we ask to be allowed our own manner of dealing with those who, through ignorance, incompetency and dishonesty, have brought devastation and ruin on our fellow citizens and our native State.

We love North Carolina and her people, and, therefore, we will defend her interests in the way and manner we think most effective, even if, in so doing, we may appear to some who are a little nervous and weak kneed, to "lay it on rather thick."

There is no effect without a cause. We look around us and see our people ground to the earth by taxation, and, notwithstanding the enormous amounts they are required to pay into the public Treasury, we see that Treasury empty at the very beginning of the financial year; we see our State credit ruined—her bonds a bye-word for worthlessness—selling at twenty cents in the dollar; we see our counties in a similar bankrupt condition; the county expenses increased five-fold over what they used to be; bill after bill introduced into the Legislature to allow the county and that to levy special tax or issue county bonds; Special Courts ordered all over the State and still jurors and witnesses not paid; the jails filled with thieves and scoundrels, the people having to feed them; thus heaping burden upon burden on the people's shoulders.

We see the Sheriffs selling even the meat and bread from families to raise the heavy taxes laid upon them; we see the number of beggars increasing day by day; we see an incompetent Legislature, sitting for days, weeks, months, at an exorbitant expense to the State, yet doing nothing but laying more burdens on the people, while they get each his seven dollars a day.

We see corruption in every department of the Government, extravagance practiced by all from the highest to the lowest, without the least regard to the oppressed and impoverished condition of the people.

For all this there is a cause, and that cause is, unmistakably, the placing in positions of honor and trust a set of incompetent, ignorant, dishonest vagabond, carpet-bag adventurers, and no less incompetent and dishonest scalawag natives, who have no aspirations beyond self-aggrandizement, no restraint but the fear of the jail and penitentiary.

And when we look at these men and remember the damage and ruin they have wrought and are still working to the State; the insult and oppression they are heaping upon the people, shall we be mild and courteous, and use honeyed phrases in regard to them? Shall we manipulate them with hands in silk gloves? We do not regard it as our duty to do so. We feel that neither justice to the State nor to those guilty of crimes against the State, require it. We intend to "call a spade a spade;" to call a swindler a swindler; and a rogue a rogue.

Who goes hungry and half clad, without means to procure food for his family, or medicine for them when sick? The poor, hard working laborer, black and white.

Who builds fine houses, furnishes them with fine furniture; drives fine horses to fine vehicles, eats fine dinners at the restaurants and drinks fine liquors at the bars? Why, the thieving, swindling, dishonest, carpet-bag office holder, that a short time ago hadn't the means to buy a breakfast.

Where does that thirteen hundred thousand dollars come from that goes into the State Treasury? Why, from the pockets of the people. Where does it go to?

O, it will not do to talk about that! We must not tell the people who gets it; we must not speak of the extravagance, mismanagement, and swindling by which the money is exhausted. We must "draw it mild" when Littlefield gives forty-five notes of a thousand dollars each, to members of the Legislature, and his understriker, Churchill, afterward swears they were given for illegal purposes; we must not speak above a whisper when Littlefield pays Sinclair's Hotel bill, of over a hundred dollars, after he had voted for that iniquitous bill by which the State is to be taxed millions for no benefit!

As we have said, this MAY be a matter of taste with some; with us it is a question of duty, and we expect to perform it; and we expect to perform it in our own way, and in a manner that will best serve to make the people understand the facts.

EXPERIENCE.—Last night, through the Star Advertising Agency, Messrs. O. G. Parsly & Co., telegraphed to the Raleigh SENTINEL, to order that it might appear in that paper this morning, an advertisement of their auction sale of Cardenas molasses, to take place next Tuesday. Such evidences of enterprise are comparatively common in New York, but they are sufficiently rare to be worthy of record in North Carolina."—Wilmington Star.

The advertisement came duly to hand, was inserted, as per order, and we have no doubt will induce many of our mercantile readers to avail themselves of the chance offered.

David Bostick, brakesman, was crushed between two cars and killed, while coupling some cars, at Wilson last week.

INTERVIEWED HIM IN JAIL.

We interviewed John L. Ledbetter last Saturday, in the jail of Orange county.—We have before noticed John, but his case, as illustrating the conduct of the Governor, will bear repeating.

John gave us this account of himself; he was sentenced by Judge Henry to the Penitentiary for twenty-five years, for breaking into the house of Rufus Edney, who lives eight miles from Hendersonville in the county of Henderson. John was raised by William Ledbetter seven miles from Hendersonville; he reached Raleigh on the 16th of December, in company with George Corland, negro, and Hacket Pogue, white, all bound for the Penitentiary. John was pardoned without being committed to jail; he was on his way to his mountain home and got as far as Chapel Hill, when and where he was arrested for larceny, and brought to jail on the 24th. We asked for his pardon, which he presented; the paper is well rubbed and parts of it missing. It will be on exhibition in our office for a few days. It is not our property but John's, he lent it to us to be returned. We gave the jailer fifty cents to be expended in tobacco for John for the use and loan of his pardon.—We think the pardon recites a plain, palpable falsehood in this, "And whereas it has been made to appear to me that the case is one fit for the Executive clemency."

We don't believe any such thing was made to appear or that any respectable man ever attempted to make it appear to the negroe's governor. We have heard that Judge Henry sentenced John for 30 years, and the bar begged piteously for him and the Judge relented and modified the sentence to twenty. John however, says the sentence was for twenty-five years. We were induced to visit John, because the Jailor informed us that he had sent word to a retailer of the town, that he would give him a mule, eight hands high, and 40 acres of land, for as much whiskey as he could drink during his imprisonment.

When the inquiry was made, as to the location of the land and the whereabouts of the mule, John said they were both in the hands of the Governor. In talking of the mule and 40 acres, Henry Maloy, one of the Blalock murderers, spoke out and said, the "Governor had promised the mule if we would vote for him, and I know I done the voting and I am entitled to it."

We said "you ought to have had more sense than to believe him." Henry replied, "any man is liable to be fooled." We should have questioned the Blalock murderers, but as the matter will be for the consideration of the jury, we did not wish to prejudice their cause by any publication of facts which we might have elicited from them in conversation.

Where is the security for life, liberty or property, with 70,000 negroes in a Secret Society, taught by such carpet baggers as Judge Tourgee, General Laflin, General Littlefield, General Estes and Major Tatten. This last named Radical gentleman has been indicted for stealing fodder from a negro.

DOES HE HOLD THEM.

When we charge the Governor with writing certain editorals for the Standard, Pike usually speaks after this wise, "We are authorized by the Governor to say, he has no time to write for the Standard or any other paper," then Pike says he feels complimented, that his editorals should be attributed to so able a pen &c.

We heard that the Governor had bought, and now holds or did hold, a portion of the North Carolina Railroad Eight per cent mortgage bonds. The bonds were sold to George W. Swepson, for 65 cents to the in dollar, and he resold to the Governor, or to some one who sold to the Governor.—These bonds are at par to day. Now this is a more serious matter than writing editorials; can't Pike be authorized to say, the Governor does, or does not hold, the bonds. Speak, Governor, once again; speak through Pike once more; have you, or did you have, say of those bonds?

GRAND JURY OF WAKE.—There is work for the Grand Jury of this county, if they be properly sustained and assisted. When Judge Watts suddenly adjourned the Court, upon its presentment of Gen. Littlefield, by the Grand Jury, he showed in an unmistakable manner, that they need not expect much from the Court.

Judge Watts is fully aware of the suit of A. W. Shaffer against Littlefield, Smith (the myth) and Dewease. The case was up before him, last August. The complaint and answer in this case clearly showed fraud and villainy.

That stern old Jurist, Judge Caldwell, on reading such a complaint and answer, would have sent for the Grand Jury, instanter, and given them a special charge to present the parties.

If it had escaped the Judge, the old Solicitors, such as Poindexter or Ed. Jones, would have called his attention to it.

But it is not too late. Judge Watts can yet call the attention of the Grand Jury to this matter. It is as clear a case of conspiracy to commit fraud as was ever presented to a Jury, and its investigation would throw much light on the manner of accomplishing a good deal of the legislation that has bankrupted the State and ruined her credit. We shall see whether anything will be done in the matter.

We clip the following from the Tarboro North Carolinian, in regard to our young townsman, whom he calls, "our best North Carolina poet:"

Our best North Carolina poet, Theo. H. Hill, Esq., of Raleigh, is kindly reviewed in that ablest exponent of Southern thought and culture, the Southern Review, edited by Albert Taylor Bledsoe. As the editor is confessedly the most consummate intellectual battery now at work in this country, it is a compliment to our young poet to be noticed by him. The article upon Mr. Hill is not all praise, but is discriminative and kindly. He concludes that Mr. Hill has written many good verses, and that he offends a critical taste less frequently than many of the standard poets. No one can read "Taking a Snooze," "The Star Above the Manger," and several other shorter poems without recognizing in the author a "poet born."

Remarks of Mr. T. A. Nicholson, OF IREDELL

In the House of Commons, Jan. 17th 1870, on the Sheffner military bill.

Mr. Speaker:—Sir, it has not been my custom to occupy much of the time of this House, for the reason sir, that the political party with which I affiliate is so much in the minority that we are perfectly powerless and hence it is a needless consumption of breath for us to address this house; nor, Sir, would I attempt it now but for the reason that the defeat of the bill under consideration is of such vital importance to the people of North Carolina.

In addressing this House I propose to calmly canvass this bill section by section. And the first reason that I propose to offer why the first section of this bill should not pass, is that there is no necessity for it. I stand here and assert most positively without the fear of successful contradiction, from all that I have been able to learn from the papers of the State and other sources of information, that there is not a single county in the State where there is the least opposition to the enforcement of the civil law by the civil authorities; notwithstanding the great array that has been made before this house during the discussion of this bill of perjured jurors and desperate outrages that are alleged to have been committed in some of the counties of the State. Has there been the slightest reliable evidence produced here, Sir, that any Sheriff of any county has been successfully resisted in the execution of any writ that has been placed in his hand to serve on any accused party? Not one. Has there been any reliable testimony brought before this House of a single instance, where a grand jury has failed to find a true bill against a violator of the law, where there has been evidence brought before them of a character that the law of the land requires to influence a jury of men acting under a solemn oath to base such a finding upon? Not at all. Has there been any evidence paraded here Sir, to show that there is a single county in the State where the Courts cannot be kept open to hear all the grievances and redress all the wrongs? No such proof has been offered. And yet, Sir, the friends of this bill tell us that it must pass or the country is ruined. The next reason that I propose to offer why this section of this bill should not pass, is that it is impolitic and unsafe, it enlarges the powers of the Governor to an extent unprecedented in any free government. Let us examine the wording of the section, does it say, Sir, that whenever the civil authorities in any county in the State, shall find that they are unable to execute the law in their respective county, they shall notify the Governor of the existence of such a state of things, and he shall call into active service a sufficient amount of the militia of the State to aid the civil authorities to administer and execute the law in such county or counties? No Sir. But what does it say it says that the Governor, whenever in his judgment the civil authorities in any county are unable to protect its citizens in life and property he is to declare such county in a state of insurrection and call into active service the militia of the State to such an extent as may become necessary to repress such insurrection. Now Sir does not the passage of this bill with this section as it is, constitute the Governor of the State of North Carolina a military Dictator to all intents and purposes? and Sir I appeal to the representatives of the people of our beloved old State on this floor assembled, are you tired of a free and republican form of Government where the laws are administered by the civil authorities and all men have a right to trial by a lawful jury, that you are going to pass this bill and place yourselves under a military Dictatorship to rule over you by military power? I ask gentlemen to weigh well the force of this section of the bill. The Governor by the exercise of this unprecedented stretch of power may when he sees fit declare any county in a state of insurrection and send the military power there to take the rule of the county, no matter how well the civil authorities may be administering the law. (It Sir will be a matter of discression with him) and thus bring about a conflict between the military and civil authorities of the State and produce such a condition of things in North Carolina, such as I pray God we may never witness. Gentlemen well know that when the conflict does come, the civil power will be over ridden by the military, and we all know that the result will be disastrous enough. And Sir I stand here for one opposed to clothing the Governor of the State of North Carolina with any such unprecedented power, I care not to what party he may belong.

I proceed now Sir to advert to the second section of the bill. It is true Sir that this House in its wisdom has stricken out this section and it is not because of the fact that it is likely to be couched in the bill it passed that I notice it at all, but Sir I notice it because of the great claims the friends of the bill set up for it after the striking out of the section; they allege that every thing objectionable is stricken out and therefore the bill ought to receive the hearty support of this House. Now Mr. Speaker the striking out of this section alters the force of the bill but very little, so far as military rule is concerned. It is true Sir that the section under review provides for the writ of habeas corpus, the great writ of right, the great bullwark of civil liberty, the writ that secures to every man the right of trial by jury. But Sir if the suspension of this writ had been obtained at all (which is a matter of great doubt with me) it must be obtained through the President of the United States by the consent of Congress, which would place us under martial law and subject us to the control of United States troops. The bill Sir as it now stands makes the Governor a military dictator to all intents and purposes, and subjects us to be ruled by little less than a mob. If Sir we are to be under military rule, give us United States troops that are well disciplined and under competent commanders; but in the name of all that is dear to a North Carolinian, in the name of all that is humane, do not place us under a mob designated by the name of militia, undisciplined, under incompetent officers. A militia, sir, that will be sent out to effect political ends, a militia that will glory in over awing and over-riding all who differ with them in political opinion, a militia that will be guilty of rapine, murder and robbery, every day that they are in active service. The third section of this bill, says that upon motion of the Solicitor of a district, it shall be the duty of the Judge thereof to remove the trial of an person indited for murder, &c., from the county where such offence may have been committed, to such other county as the Solicitor may designate.—Now Mr. Speaker, this section compels a Judge to remove the trial of a prisoner, the language is he shall, upon the mere motion of the Solicitor, without oath, without affidavit, without anything but a motion from the Solicitor at the instance, perhaps, of some enemy of the prisoner; but the hands of the Judge are tied, the section of the bill says he shall. Sir, this is giving the accuser too much power over the accused; what! sir, pick up a prisoner in Cherokee and carry him to Currituck, or any where the Solicitor pleases without oath or affidavit, and set him down for trial among entire strangers, where nothing is known of his former character, not a friend to attend to his interest; and he perhaps a poor man that has no means of getting witnesses away there from his native county, from whence he was brought; and be tried too before men and among men who are under the influence of such inveterate prejudice that that they are incapable of doing him justice. I ask sir, is there any hope that a prisoner can have a fair trial under such circumstances? Gentlemen may sneer at the idea of the influence of prejudice, but I will show you from the history of the United States before I am done, something of what has been done under the influence of prejudice and hate in the punishment of innocent persons. The forth section of this bill provides that the Governor of the State shall draw upon the Treasurer, for the payment of all the expenses of the militia service; and that the Commissioners of the county where the militia are sent to operate must reimburse the State Treasurer within a year. Here sir, the Governor is impowered to send to any county in the State any number of militia he may choose, pay the officers any wages he may think fit, pay the privates as large a price as he may be disposed, keep the men in the county just as long as he in his judgment and view of things may desire to do; and then turn round (no matter whether there was any necessity for the militia or not) and tax the county to pay the expense and collect it out of the hard earnings of the people of the county. Now sir, this is an outrage upon any people under a free and republican form of government. How I ask, is any people ground down by taxation as the people of North Carolina now are to bear it? Sir, the people are already taxed to the utmost of their ability to pay, and many counties in the State, heavily in debt, and their representatives are applying to this Legislature, for special tax bills to levy still further taxes on their counties. And then comes this bill with all this absolutely unnecessary burden of expense that must fall upon the unfortunate counties that may come under the ban of this nefarious bill. But sir, it goes further; it proposes to confiscate the property of every unfortunate prisoner that is convicted no matter whether he is guilty or not. His wife and children must be stripped of the last cent of their hard earnings, turned out of doors upon the cold charities of the world, without a place to lay their heads, but upon the cold damp earth. And now sir, what is all this unprecedented stretch of power, all this injustice in the removal of the trial of prisoners, all this lavish of treasure? for simply to give one secret oath bound political society the strong arm of the military power to put down another supposed secret oath bound political society, that's all. Sir, will not members of the House of Representatives of the State of North Carolina, wake up to the idea that all political secret organizations are dangerous to civil liberty, and incompatible with a free and republican form of government? They ought to be held in utter contempt by every lover of his country. But sir, what is the taxpayers of North Carolina to gain by this extraordinary legislation? The bill tells us that it is for the better protection of life and property, but the friends of the bill, in their discussion of it, interpret it to mean to hunt Ku Klux? Yes, to hunt Ku Klux! Mr. Speaker, who are the leaders of this bill in this House, who are urging its passage, sir, with so much zeal and energy? It is a set of men, sir, from other States that have come down here, adventurers after power with a hate against the people of the South as bitter as old Lucifer himself, and a prejudice as black as the lower regions of the bottomless pit, for the express purpose of preying upon the people of the State. Sir, can any man with an unprejudiced mind sit here and see the nature of the Legislation that is done here in the way of the increase of offices and filling them at high salaries and infusing their old puritanical ideas of force and high taxation in every possible way, but what can see that the intention of these men is to confiscate the property of the people of the State by taxation, if no other way, and drive our people to the wall. In the name of all that is dear to a free people, natives of North Carolina, whose sires fought and bled and died, and whose bones bleached up in the soil of our once noble old State in the revolutionary struggle of 1776, for the liberties for which I stand here in this hall and most earnestly contend. In the name of our departed dead, whose bodies now sleep silently beneath the sod of our beloved old State, are we to give up all these liberties and be ruled by a military dictator to gratify the unbounded hate of these adventures after power, filled with all their old puritanical notions.

Mr. Speaker, have these adventurers who are in favor of so much wild and unwarrantable legislation, got through with witch hunting up in their own blessed land, that they have come down here to hunt hobgobblins in the shape of supposed ku klux? And now Sir, in order to form some idea of their ku kluxing under this bill, how will they accuse? Upon what kind of evidence will they convict, condemn and execute innocent persons? Let us see how their forefathers operated in their hunt after hobgobblins in the shape of supposed witchcraft. (And, Sir, I think I am fully justifiable in drawing the comparison, when we recollect that there can be no doubt but puritanical hate and prejudice runs as high in these adventurers against our people as it ever did in their forefathers against those that happened to differ with them in opinion. And, Sir, human nature is the same; and they seek under this bill to vent their spleen upon the defenceless heads of North Carolinians, who differ with them in political opinion. And here, Sir, let me present to this House a case in point. Hildreth's history of U. S., Vol. 2, page 156. The new Court thus organized, proceeded to Salem and commenced operations by the trial of an old woman who had long enjoyed the reputation of being a witch; besides "spectoral evidence," that is the tales of the afflicted. A jury of women were appointed to make an examination who found upon her a wart or excrescence adjudged to be a Devil's tit. As soon as this was announced, a number of old stories were raked up. The hens of some of the old woman's neighbors had died; others had cattle foundered; another fellow's cart had had been upset, all of which was ascribed to the incantations of the old woman. On this evidence she was brought in guilty and hanged. Sir, we have here an evidence of wrong has been done under the influence of prejudice and hate; where innocent persons were pressed by diabolical power to condemnation and death, without a particle of proof of their guilt that any sane man would pay the least attention to. And Sir, the evidence offered here for the necessity of the passage of this bill is no better than the evidence above cited. We are told here to day of perjured jurors, because they do not find a true bill when they have no evidence to base a finding upon.—Sir, we have reason to believe that wrongs do exist in some communities; but Sir the civil authorities are not resisted; give them the necessary evidence and they can convict the parties and correct the wrongs. Sir there are numbers of other cases in this history equally as pertinent to the case, but I do not propose to notice but one more and that but briefly. Page 160. Governor Bradstreet, a magistrate of Andover, because he refused to issue any more warrants, was himself accused. Accused of what? Why of being a witch, because he would not help to punish them. And his brother soon after, on the charge of bewitching a dog. Both were obliged to fly for their lives and their property was confiscated. Here Sir is another case of what prejudice and hate can do. And Sir, the Conservative party are charged here to-day of being in affiliation with the outrages that are being committed in the State, because we don't see fit to help to pass this nefarious bill. And Sir, the parties that make the charge, would confiscate our lands, and our property if they had the power, and they are seeking to do it by taxation; and if it can't be done by rules and by right, it is to be done by force. Mr. Speaker, we have witnessed enough on this floor to give unmistakable evidence of this fact. Sir, when this bill was upon its passage in this House on Friday, before we took a recess for Christmas, just at the close when the party was determined to put this bill through, Mr. French (and I am sorry he is not in his seat now to hear, and defend his course if he can) he Sir, in direct opposition to the well established rules of this house moved to appoint pages enough, to encircle the entire bar of this House, and force those who differ with him in opinion to vote on this bill; nor Sir, did his tyrannical attitude stop here, but when one or two gentlemen on his floor of his own party, asked to be excused from voting from conclensious scruples, he refused to excuse them, but dictated to them that they might vote no, and why was he so ready to allow them to vote no? because Sir in his great extremity to get a quorum, he answered his purpose as well as yes. This shows conclusively these leaders of the party are determined if they can't rule by Constitution and by right, they rule by force. Representatives of the freemen of North Carolina! has it come to this: That you are to sit here and be dictated to by a set of adventurers after power? you are to vote on the great questions of the day? how it is, sir, to the native North Carolinians I appeal—are you going to truckle to any such usurpation of power? And now sir, the very gentlemen that so vehemently urged the passage of this bill on the day alluded to, come forward now and offer several amendments to the bill which shows that we sir were right and they were wrong. One more point, sir, and I am done: We have shown that there is no necessity for the bill; that the bill is unsafe, and contrary to the genius of free government; that it subjects men to great wrongs; that it is a wanton expenditure of the hard earnings of the people; that it is all founded in prejudice, and will be executed in hate. And now, sir, what is the object of the whole thing? I unhesitatingly submit that it is for political ends, and that the crying pangs out in the discussion here begin to show some of the counties that are to suffer. Sir, the dastardly scheme of the dominant party in this Legislature to hold over for two years longer, has exploded; the great masses of the people are speaking out regardless of party, and the plotters are afraid to face the music, and the only just inference is that they want this bill to give them the strong arm of military to intimidate—and by force carry the next election.

Sir, I say shame on any political party that is afraid to come before the people and ask for their support upon the merits of the party and meet their opponents upon man'y and upon principles, without resorting to the cowardly subterfuge of calling on the strong arm of the military for help. Sir, such a party is unworthy of the confidence of the people of the dear old State of North Carolina which has been the home of our fathers, and I pray God that it may be the heritage of our children; and I hope, sir, the bill will not pass.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Owned and conducted by Southern men. It employs its funds at home for the benefit of Southern enterprises.

IT IS THE PIONEER COMPANY OF THE SOUTH, in all the new and liberal features of Life Insurance, presenting advantages not offered by any other Company, note the following points.

1st. Low Rates of Insurance, with a credit of one third, the Premium as a perpetual Loan.
2d. THIRTY DAYS GRACE for the payment of all premiums, and the Policy held good for that length of time.
3d. Policies Non-forfeiting after the first payment.
4th. Policies indisputable from any cause save fraud.
5th. No restrictions of Residence, Travel or occupation.
6th. It is a Mutual insurance Company ninety four per cent of the Profits are divided among the insured, on the contribution plan, and as money commands higher rates of Interest in the South than North or East, the probability is almost certain that the dividends will exceed those of Northern Companies, thus reducing the premiums to their lowest actual cost.

7th, Under the Charter of this Company, Polices of insurance are not subject to the debts of the Insured. Polices in favor of a wife or children are payable to them or their guardians direct.

8th. This company issues policies guaranteeing six per cent. compound interest in addition to the insurance of the amount insured. The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor according to its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman, of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

NEW ADS.—Hay at Hillsboro', E. H. Pogue.

Horse and mules for sale, and a cotton farmer wanted; apply to W. H. Jones.

Stockholders' Meeting, N. C. Home Insurance Company, February 10th.

CREECH.—There is one peculiarity about Creech; he won't keep his shelves cumbered with old goods when the time arrives to lay in new ones. He now proposes to sell desirable dress goods at very reduced prices, so as to make room, against the opening of spring, for his new stock.

BUILDING LOTS.—We advertise to-day a number of the most desirable building lots, for private residences, in the city of Raleigh; they are in a quiet, pleasant and most agreable neighborhood, one in which excellent water may be found, not too remote from the various churches, convenient to the business quarter of the city and lies well for being improved and beautified.—See the advertisement of R. S. Pullen.

REDUCTIO AD NIL.—Somebody tells us of a countryman who brought a load of shucks to to town, for sale, since the present muddy spell set in, and after having it weighed and emptied, and the calculations for the nett weight made, owing to the mud clinging to the wagon &c. &., he lacked twenty-seven pounds of having any shucks at all! We tell the tale as 'twas told to us, without vouching for the statement.

MORE FINE TOBACCO.—Bradley and Christophers wish it known that they keep good chewing tobacco some, son, and as evidence of it they show that they are not afraid to have it tried. To this end they have placed in the hands of an excellent judge of the article, a liberal sample, both of their superior chewing, and also a sample of their Eureka Durham smoking tobacco, and that judge has passed sentenced, pronouncing both, A, No. 1.

WHERE'S MORING?—We understand that instead of having his disabilities removed, they have been increasing lately.—Having done all the mischief he could, as a public character, by voting for everything he was told to vote for, he has been making trouble for the washerwomen at his boarding, in his capacity as a private individual. Were it not that decency forbids, "we could a tale unfold," that might account for Moring's absence from his seat in the House, yesterday, without having obtained leave. O, Moring! Moring! are you no better sequainted with the customs of city life than to do as you did? You must have thought, last Sunday, that you were at home in the country, convenient to your wardrobe.

PEACH BLOOMS IN JANUARY.—That old fellow who was taking note of things before any of the rest of us got here, known and designated as "the oldest inhabitant," has doubtless seen many queer and strange sights in his time, but we'll wager him a pinch of Maccaban he never saw peach trees in bloom here in January, before this year. If he did, we have never heard him speak of it. But he who shall hereafter occupy the old codger's antiquated chair, may relate the fact of having seen a peach tree in bloom, on the 25th of January 1870, if he will take the trouble to go round to Mr. Macey's, in the Western part of the city.

We also saw the crocus and white hyacynth in bloom, yesterday, in the open air; and the buds of a monthly rose nearly ready to expand. Ours is a delightsome land, and so many places for sale!

PLANT TREES.—Now is the time to plant trees, and it ought not to be neglected. If the planter don't live to enjoy the shade of them, somebody else will, and he will have the pleasure of feeling that he has left the world more pleasant than he found it, at least to this extent.

Select your trees from the most exposed positions you can find them in, rather than from the thickets; don't get them too large; save all the root to them you can, and plant them a little deeper in the ground than they originally grew.

There are many gaps on the streets, and on lots, where the trees have been destroyed by fires, or from other causes, that ought to be filled. Now is the time to do it, before the sap begins to spring.

ATTENTION RESCUE STEAM FIRE ENGINE CO.—There will be a called meeting of Rescue Steam Fire Engine Co., on Wednesday evening next, 26th inst., at 7½ o'clock, at the room in rear of Prempert's Barber Shop. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance is to be transacted.

Those members who have not yet ordered uniforms are requested to come prepared to do so.

A Beautiful Complexion.

DR. TUTT'S SARSAPARILLA and QUEEN'S DELIGHT, The GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER, expels all humours from the system; it acts directly on the Depuratory organs; the skin is one of the most important of these organs; and by the use of this invaluable medicine it is cleansed and rendered soft, fair and healthy. Try it.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION.

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the Legislature now in session, for an Act to incorporate the People's Building and Loan Association, of the City of Raleigh.

January 1870.

The Legislature of North Carolina.

MONDAY, 24, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10½ o'clock.

By J. A. Hyman, col.: From the board of Commissioners of Warren county, asking for authority to levy a special tax, not to exceed $12,000; referred.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Brogden from the Committee on Finance, reported favorably on the following bills, viz:

Bill to authorize the Commissioners of Haswood county to levy a special tax.

Bill to authorize the Commissioners of Wayne county to collect arrears of taxes for 1867.

FROM THE HOUSE.

Bill to amend a resolution authorizing the Secretary of State to furnish the members of the General Assembly with a copy of the laws; referred.

Bill to authorize the board of Commissioners of Warren county to levy a special tax; referred.

Bill to authorize the Commissioners of Cumberland county to levy a special tax; referred.

Bill to repeal an act to incorporate the town of Milton, Caswell; referred.

Communication from Governor Holden, calling the attention of the General Assembly, to the importance of suitably endowing the University of the State, with a proposition to print the same, which was concurred in.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. Welker: To provide for draining wet lands; referred.

By A. H. Galloway, (col.): To amend an act to raise revenue; referred.

By Mr. Respass: To create a fee —— simple title to real estate from the date of registration; referred.

By Mr. Blythe: To require the return by the Justices of the peace of all criminal actions had before them, to the Clerk of the Superior Court; referred.

By Mr. Jones, of Meck'enburg: To protect the owners of freight delivered by common carriers; referred.

By Mr. Harrington: To authorize the Commissioners of Harnett County to levy a special tax; referred.

By Mr. Beall: The following resolution, to-wit:

WHEREAS, The records of the Superior Court of Wake county furnish evidence of fraud and corruption on the part of Milton S. Littlefield, State printer; and

WHEREAS, His recent course during the investigation of Railroad frauds, raises the presumption that he has misapplied and speculated in the bonds of the State entrusted to his care;

Therefore Resolved, By the Senate,—the House of Representatives concuring, That Milton S. Littlefield is unfit to hold the office of State printer, and the Governor is hereby requested to remove him; lies over.

By A. H. Galloway, (col.): To authorize the Treasurer to pay the necessary expenses of the several witnesses summoned before the Investigation Committee, (of which Mr. Sweet was Chairman,) lies over.

By Mr. Stephens: To authorize the Treasurer to transfer to the general fund of the State, for ordinary purposes, all moneys now in hand, which has heretofore been appropriated to the payment of interest on special tax bonds, issued by the State; lies over.

By Mr. Blythe: To instruct the committee on finance to examine the auditors report critically and to report a bill to retrench the State expenditures to the lowest possible sum practicable.

Mr. Blythe, urged immediate action upon this resolution, he had examined the Auditors report, and was astounded at the immense amount of expenditures appropriated to carry on the State Government, he thought if he had control of the State fund he could reduce the expenses of the State at least $100,000 per year. There were numerous payments made for little matters which amount to a great deal in the end and which should be stopped, he noticed for instance that $4½ had been paid for cutting down one tree in the Baptist Grove in this city, $20 for cutting the hay in the Capital square, he thought if the hay did not pay for cutting it, that it had better be allowed to remain uncut, he thought it was time to put a stop to such things, and hoped the resolution would pass at once.

Mr. Lindsay, thought it was proper that the resolution should pass. There were numerous payments of the character alluded to by the Senator from Henderson made, under the convenient head of incidental expenditures, in passing through the Capital square every day you can see a number of hands employed, removing the manure and hauling it off, the substance of the soil, he presumed, it was to be replaced by other manures, they are payed to do the very thing that they ought not to do, and he was informed that a Northern gentleman, who had great experience in gardening &c., told them that they were doing wrong, and took the trouble to explain the subject to them fully, but still the work goes on, these men must be employed at the expense of the State, to do an injury, he hoped the resolution would pass, if it would check this constant drain on the Treasury, the resolution was adopted.

By Mr. White: Resolution authorizing the Treasurer to pay the actual expenses and mileage to the committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Company; Referred.

The Hon. Samuel Phillips and the Hon. Thos. Bragg, appeared before the bar of the Senate and were qualified, to enter upon their duties as members of the investigation committee.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to restore the credit of the State and to facilitate the construction of the unfinished Railroads.

This bill or motion of Mr. Love was considered by sections, numerous amendments were adopted.

Pending its consideration the Senate adjourned until this evening at 7½ o'clock.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Saturday Night's Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Revenue $239,000.

Fisk Jr. testified to-day. The election committee seated Ovoda.

Commanders of Georgraphical military departments can grant to officers leave for thirty days and also extend leave granted by superior commanders thirty to sixty days.

In replying to the committee for the advancement of the interests of the District of Columbia, the President said, he wished to see the seat of government made such as to be the pride of the citizens of the Republic, and acceptable, at least, to the proper consideration of the people of the old world. He appreciated the disadvantages the citizens of the District labored under and would be glad to help them out.

In the House Stokes began ventilating the affairs of Tennessee, but having permission to print, gave way to the Capital movers. Moore and Logan made long speeches in favor of the move ment and the House adjourned.

The State Department has received from our Consul at Amoi, a copy of an important order from the foreign Board at Pekin, which order had not been promulgated, but communicated to the Commissioners of customs of treaty ports. The Consul expressed the opinion that under this order the lawful emigration of Chinese to our Pacific Coast will be confined to Hong Kong, as it will be unprofitable from other ports, because, 1st, non-treaty power merchants are not permitted to open emigration agencies; 2nd, non-treaty power ships are not permitted to carry coolie emigrants; 3rd, coolie emigrants are not permitted to proceed under contract to non-treaty power countries; 4th, only treaty power merchants can open emigrant agencies, only treaty power ships can carry such emigrants, and it is only to treaty power countries such contract emigrants can proceed; 5th, the coolie traffic is prohibited at Macao; [and a number of other reasons but we think these sufficient.]

HENRY'S
CARBOLIC
CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR, OR BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid ex tract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all infirmities, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions Salt Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Waste of Vitality, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villainous diseases. Vaccination pus was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sores.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without diseases, and both be came infected alike. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and knew not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood
BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.
It imparts a
Sparkling Brightness to the Eye.
A Rosy Glow to the Cheek,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all sides.

For all affections of the kindneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Roper, of Columbus, Mo., I suffered tortures with running sores. Since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"Yes yes, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis.—Your remedy seems to be curing me fast. Send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5 Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, RETENTION OF THE URINE, &c.
And for Female Diseases,
Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

CAUTION!—In ordering our remedy always place the number of our Post-Office Box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-Office compels this.

"The Norfolk Oil and Fish Guano COMPANY'S.

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO,
PRICE $48 PER TON OF 2,000 lbs., AT NORFOLK VA.
Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Lieberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the produce much in favor of your article, the seed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1869. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$18,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed new assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,377 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Millions Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
